Yes the correction maybe submitted as a minor resubmittal.

Be sure your cover letter states you are submitting a minor resubmittal and provide the sheet numbers you are revising.

Include a copy of this email with your project submittal.

Christine,

I also meant to ask if this re-submittal could be done as a Minor Resubmittal.

We are changing the civil site plan and detail sheet to address the striping comment for the handicapped parking space and correcting the landscape plan with a drawing layer that was shifted. We will also provide Ray

Bellows' approval for the chain link fence and fabric screening. These items will address all of the comments.

Thank you,

Christine,

In the attached Review Comment Letter your correction comment 9, Review #2 states to "Show floor area by use to verify provided parking and permitted use." Attached is the floor plan with the title Field Construction Offices highlighted and the area labeled as 2,400 SF. Is this what you are looking for?

Thanks,
